Brochure Distance Learning Executive Course Programme 2025 School of Social Innovation @ Hugenate Kollege

At the School of Social Innovation, we dream of communities of dedicated and well-equipped people participating in caring for and healing the ills of this world. To build such communities, innovative social leaders are needed to build and develop the human and social capital of our nation.

The aim of the three distinct online executive short courses, is to train social innovation leaders who are committed and prepared to devote their lives and competencies to inclusively improve society regardless of social standing, wealth, culture, ethnicity or privilege.

The School of Social Innovation believes that continuous social innovation is needed to ensure that effective, well-researched and context-specific solutions to the needs of individuals, groups, and communities are developed and implemented.

The three executive short courses presented, if there is sufficient demand, are:

Admission requirements

Requirement for admission is preferably an undergraduate degree or equivalent qualification. Applicants with a grade 12 school leaving certificate are also eligible for admission to executive short courses with appropriate leadership and management experience.

Distance Learning Delivery

In the distance learning delivery approach, the course is presented via the My Notes Student Portal of Hugenote Kollege in a programme that will require guided self-study from participants. The time required for this self-study delivery will be ±4 hours and requires engagement with the material supplied. The self-study on My Notes will be linked to three weekly four-hour Zoom-based teaching sessions. Attendance is compulsory.

The prescribed compulsory assessments will require self-study and uploading of the assignments onto My Notes to be graded. The duration of the course adds up to ±35 days and is delivered in the manner set out above and below.

Assessment methods

- Individual leadership journey exercise (75%)
- Class group presentation (25%).

The standard cost per course is R 3 900 per person.

Dutch Reformed and United Reformed Church ministers earn after completion CPD points. Send proof of this to Bridget Leibbrandt at bleibbrandt@kaapkerk.co.za.

Social workers can earn 15.5 CPD points after completion of all three School of Social Innovation courses.
